SPRING 2025 EVENTS

8

MAY

Women, Water & Wine Networking Reception

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
SPONSOR/ ATTEND

Join us for our next W3 networking reception to make connections and celebrate women in the water industry.

During this session, we will welcome Hannah S. Palmer, author of "The Pool Is Closed", for a powerful discussion on water, access, and equity.

Palmer's book explores the deep connections between water access, environmental history, and the social dynamics of public swimming spaces.

Registration is free thanks to our W3 Champion sponsor, Hazen & Sawyer!

MAY

AquaRoyale Casino Night

6:00 PM - 10:00 PM
SPONSOR / ATTEND

Join us for an unforgettable evening at The Water Tower for the inaugural AquaRoyale Casino Night!

An event where glamour meets philanthropy in support of innovative water solutions. Proceeds support The Water Tower Institute's mission to provide innovative solutions for water utilities in research, technology, and training.

Guests will be treated to a night filled with thrilling casino-style games, dinner, dancing, and a silent auction. Tickets and sponsorships are available.

Water 101

8:30 AM - 1:00 PM
ATTEND

New to the water industry? This is the class for you! Gain fundamental industry knowledge to put you on the path to success in your career. Water 101 is an intro class designed to explain the need-to-know basics from water utility governance, drivers, and procurement processes to the urban water cycle, and where your efforts and products fit in the big picture.

This course is geared toward new members of the water industry representing organizations such as consulting and engineering firms, product manufacturers, and distributors, but all are welcome and encouraged to attend.
